

Rahul Sateeja

PARTNER

Rahul Sateeja is a Partner in the Taxation Group, bringing around 15 years of extensive experience in both litigation and advisory services across the spectrum of direct and indirect taxation. His practice spans complex tax disputes, strategic advisory, and regulatory compliance, serving a diverse clientele that includes multinational corporations, large domestic enterprises, and emerging businesses.

Rahul regularly appears before all levels of tax adjudicatory authorities in India, including the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal (ITAT), Customs, Excise & Service Tax Appellate Tribunal (CESTAT), various High Courts, and the Supreme Court of India. He is known for his robust courtroom presence and deep technical understanding, which allows him to navigate nuanced legal and procedural challenges effectively.

In addition to his litigation practice, Rahul advises clients on cross-border taxation, transfer pricing, GST, and other evolving areas of tax law. His solutions-oriented approach has helped clients manage tax risk and structure their transactions and operations efficiently in line with Indian tax regulations.

Rahul also brings valuable sectoral insights, having advised and represented clients from industries such as aviation, mining, financial services (including NBFCs), and healthcare. His ability to blend domain knowledge with legal acumen has consistently delivered measurable value to clients facing both contentious and non-contentious tax issues.

Rahul is an alumnus of Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University, Delhi, and is widely regarded for his commitment to client service, strategic thinking, and collaborative approach.
